

Maastricht University

is cordially inviting you to a special event on

25 Years after Maastricht: The Future of Money and Finance in Europe in the Aula of the School of Business and Economics, Tongersestraat 53, 6211 LM Maastricht on Thursday, 16 February 2017, 3-6 pm.

Keynote Speakers:

- Benoît Cœuré, Member of the Executive Board of the European Central Bank
- Professor Barry Eichengreen, University of California Berkeley: „Aftershocks of Monetary Unification“

The keynote speeches will be followed by a panel discussion on the future of money and finance in Europe with:

- Daniel Gros (Director, Centre for European Policy Studies)
- Hans-Helmut Kotz (Harvard University and former Member of the Executive Board of the Deutsche Bundesbank)
- Robert McCauley (Bank for International Settlement)

If you wish to attend, please register with Els van Aernsbergen (Ref: Maastricht25): e.vanaernsbergen@maastrichtuniversity.nl. Note that space is limited and attendance will be allocated on a first come-first serve basis.

The event is part of a Jean Monnet Workshop on “Financial globalization and its spillovers - monetary and exchange rate policy in times of crises” in Cologne and Maastricht co-organized with TH Köln, University Duisburg-Essen, and Ruhr-University Bochum.
